

Forget-Me-Not Scheme

Supporting people with Dementia and Confusion

Ashford & St Peters Hospital trust are passionate about providing good care for all our patients.

What is it?

- Designed to support staff, patients and carers in working together to best meet the needs of people experiencing memory problems or confusion

What does it involve?

- A symbol will be placed by their name on the patient information board and at times by their bedhead
- A sticker may be placed in the medical notes
- You will be offered the opportunity to complete a 'This is Me' hospital passport, which helps us understand the persons needs

Do I have to do it?

- No, the patient /next of kin/ carer can opt out if preferred

Please speak to a member of ward staff for more information or a leaflet
